holding certificates of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury as acceptable sureties on Federal bonds. Limitations concerning corporate sureties are prescribed by the Secretary in the current revision of Treasury Department Circular No. 570 (Companies Holding Certificates of Authority as Acceptable Sureties on Federal Bonds and as Acceptable Reinsuring Companies). The surety shall have no interest whatever in the business covered by the bond.

(b) Treasury Department Circular No. 570 is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER annually as of the first workday of July. As they occur, interim revisions of the circular are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Copies may be obtained from the Audit Staff, Bureau of Government Financial Operations, Department of the Treasury, Washington, DC 20226.

§ 275.121 Amount of bond.

In order that tobacco products may be shipped to the United States on computation of tax under the provisions of this subpart, the total amount of the bond or bonds shall at all times be in an amount not less than the amount of unpaid tax chargeable at any one time against the bond: Provided, That the amount of any such bond need not exceed $250,000 where payment of tax on cigarettes or on any combination of tobacco products is deferred; and need not exceed $150,000 where the tax on cigars, smokeless tobacco or pipe tobacco is deferred. The amount of the bond shall in no case be less than $1,000. Where the amount of a bonded manufacturer's bond is less than the maximum prescribed, the bonded manufacturer shall maintain a running account accurately reflecting all outstanding taxes with which his bond is chargeable. He shall charge such account with the amount of tax he agreed to pay on Forms 2987 and shall credit the account for the amount he paid with his return, Form 2988, at the time he files such return.

§ 275.122 Strengthening bond.

Where the amount of any bond is no longer sufficient under the provisions of § 275.121, the bonded manufacturer shall immediately file a strengthening bond in an appropriate amount with the same surety as that on the bond already in effect, unless a superseding bond is filed pursuant to § 275.123. A strengthening bond will not be approved where any notation is made thereon which is intended, or which may be construed, as a release of any former bond, or as limiting the amount of either bond to less than its full amount.
